September 24, 2002

Dear Shareholder:

You are cordially invited to attend the Annual Meeting of Shareholders of Hathaway Corporation to be held on October 24, 2002, commencing at 2:00 p.m. (Mountain Time) at the Lone Tree Country Club, 9808 Sunningdale Blvd., Littleton, Colorado. The Board of Directors and management look forward to personally greeting those shareholders able to attend the meeting.

At the Annual Meeting you will be asked to consider and vote on the election of five directors to serve until the next annual meeting. The five directors nominated are the present directors of the Company. In addition to electing directors, you are being asked to consider and vote on two other proposals. Item 2 is a proposal to amend the Company's Articles of Incorporation for the purpose of changing the Company's name to Allied Motion Technologies Corporation. The name change is being proposed because the buyers of our power and process segment purchased the exclusive right to use the Hathaway name in association with the power and process products they purchased. Item 3 is a proposed amendment to the Year 2000 Stock Incentive Plan. We are proposing this amendment to increase the number of shares of Common Stock authorized for issuance under the Year 2000 Plan by 400,000 shares and to increase the number of shares that may be granted to any one participant during a calendar year to insure that Hathaway can continue to grant stock options to attract, motivate and retain highly qualified employees and directors.

Your Board of Directors unanimously recommends a vote FOR the election of directors, FOR the amendment to the Articles of Incorporation and FOR the amendment to the Year 2000 Stock Incentive Plan.

Regardless of the number of shares you own and whether or not you plan to attend, it is important that your shares are represented and voted at the Annual Meeting. Accordingly, you are requested to sign, date and mail the enclosed proxy at your earliest convenience.

On behalf of the Board of Directors, thank you for your cooperation and support.

Sincerely,

/s/ RICHARD D. SMITH

PROXY STATEMENT

This proxy statement and the accompanying proxy card are being furnished to the holders of Common Stock of Hathaway Corporation in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors to be voted at the Annual Meeting of shareholders to be held on October 24, 2002 at 2:00 p.m. (Mountain Time) at the Lone Tree Country Club, 9808 Sunningdale Blvd., Littleton, Colorado. The Annual Meeting is called for the purposes set forth in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Shareholders. This proxy statement and the accompanying proxy card were first mailed to shareholders on or about September 23, 2002.

QUORUM AND VOTING RIGHTS

The presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter presented is necessary to constitute a quorum at the Annual Meeting. Broker non-votes are shares held in street name for which the broker indicates that instructions have not been received from the beneficial owners or other persons entitled to vote, and the broker does not have discretionary voting authority. Broker non-votes and abstentions will be counted as shares present in determining whether a quorum is present, but with respect to non-routine matters they are not counted in favor of such matters.

The affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the shares of Common Stock entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting is required for the election of directors (Item 1). Since election of directors requires the approving vote to be measured against all shares of Common Stock entitled to vote, withholding authority (including broker non-votes) from that vote is the equivalent of a vote against election of nominated directors. Approval of Items 2 and 3 require the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at the meeting. Broker non-votes and abstentions will not be counted as affirmative or negative in determining the number of shares voted on Items 2 and 3. The Record Date for determination of shareholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Annual Meeting is the close of business on September 16, 2002. As of the Record Date, there were _____ shares of Common Stock outstanding, each of which is entitled to one vote at the Annual Meeting.

All shares of Common Stock represented by properly executed proxies will, unless such proxies have been revoked previously, be voted in accordance with the instructions indicated in such proxies. If no such instructions are indicated, such shares will be voted FOR the election of the five nominees for director (Item 1), FOR the amendment to Article One of the Company's Articles of Incorporation (Item 2), FOR the proposed amendment to the Year 2000 Stock Incentive Plan (Item 3), and in the discretion of the proxy holders on any other matter that may properly come before the Annual Meeting (Item 4). Any holder of Common Stock has the unconditional right to revoke his or her proxy at any time prior to the voting thereof at the Annual Meeting by (i) filing with the Secretary of the Company written revocation of his or her proxy prior to the voting thereof, (ii) giving a duly executed proxy bearing a later date, or (iii) voting in person at the Annual Meeting. If a shareholder's shares are held by a nominee and the shareholder seeks to vote shares in person at the Annual Meeting, the shareholder must bring to the Annual Meeting a written statement from the nominee confirming the shareholder's beneficial ownership of a stated number of shares and that such shares have not been voted by the nominee. Attendance by a shareholder at the Annual Meeting will not in itself revoke his or her proxy.

Solicitation of proxies for use at the Annual Meeting may be made in person or by mail, telephone or telegram, by directors, officers and regular employees of the Company. Such persons will receive no special compensation for any solicitation activities. In addition, Hathaway may retain the services of D.F. King & Co., Inc. to aid in the solicitation of proxies in person, by mail or telephone. If retained, the costs are not expected to exceed $5,000 plus expenses. We will request banking institutions, brokerage firms, custodians, trustees, nominees and fiduciaries to forward solicitation materials to the beneficial owners of Common Stock held of record by such entities, and we will, upon the request of such record holders, reimburse reasonable forwarding expenses. The costs of preparing, printing, assembling and mailing the proxy statement, proxy card and all materials used in the solicitation of proxies to shareholders, and all clerical and other expenses of such solicitation, will be borne by Hathaway.

ITEM 1: ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Our articles of incorporation and bylaws provide for a board consisting of not less than three and not more than six persons, as such number is determined by the Board of Directors. The board has determined that the board will consist of five directors, all of whom will be elected annually to serve until the next annual meeting of shareholders and until their successors are elected and qualified, or until the director resigns or is otherwise removed.

All incumbent directors have been nominated to succeed themselves as directors. The affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the shares of Common Stock entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting is required for the election of directors. If the number of votes required for the election of directors is not received, directors will continue in office until the next annual meeting or until resignation or removal. Unless authority is withheld, it is intended that the shares represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting will be voted in favor of the five nominees named below. All nominees have agreed to serve if elected.

If any nominee becomes unable or unwilling to serve at the time of the Annual Meeting, the shares of Common Stock represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting will be voted for the election of such other person as the Board of Directors of the Company may recommend.

MANAGEMENT RECOMMENDS A VOTE "FOR" EACH NOMINEE NAMED.

During the 2002 fiscal year, Mr. Hock received $500 and Mr. Pilmanis received $250 for preparation of Committee Minutes.

The Company entered into a Consulting Agreement with Mr. Prince effective after his retirement from employment on August 31, 1998. Long-Term Incentive Plans—Awards In Last Fiscal Year

Long-term incentives are provided through stock option grants. See the discussion under COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT.

Employment Agreements With Chief Executive Officers

Hathaway has an Employment Agreement with Richard D. Smith, Chief Executive Officers, which became effective August 13, 1998 for an initial term of five years and continues subsequently on a year-to-year basis unless the Company or the officer gives termination notice at least 60 days prior to expiration of the initial or subsequent terms.

Base Salary. The Agreement provides a base salary of not less than $210,000 for Mr. Smith, and may be reviewed annually for increase on a merit basis. Mr. Smith's salary was increased to $235,000 effective September 2001.

Annual Incentive Plan. Annual incentive bonuses are paid based on achieving performance criteria established annually by the Board of Directors. The performance criteria will recognize the overall financial performance of the Company or the performance of its separate segments and the improvements made in financial results. See discussion under COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT.

Long-Term Incentive Plan Payment. The Company utilizes stock options for long-term incentives based on criteria described in the COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT.

Other Provisions. Mr. Smith participates in other benefits and perquisites as are generally provided by the Company to its employees. In addition, the Company provides Mr. Smith with $500,000 of life insurance and an automobile.

In the event of death, disability or termination by the Company prior to a change in control, other than for cause, the Agreement with Mr. Smith provides for limited continuation of salary and insurance benefits and for bonus prorations or settlements.

Change in Control Arrangements

Hathaway has entered into agreements with Mr. Smith and Mr. Warzala pursuant to which, upon termination by Hathaway (other than for cause as defined in the Agreement) or by the executive for good reason (as defined in the Agreement) within 90 days prior to or 24 months following a change in control of the Company, they are entitled to receive a severance payment equal to 2.5 times the sum of current annual base salary plus the amount paid under the Annual Incentive Plan for the preceding fiscal year, an allocation for incentive compensation for the current year up to the date of termination and two year continuation of insurance benefits. The agreements expire on December 31 of each year, however, they are extended automatically on January 1 of each year for a term of two years, unless notice of non-renewal is given by Hathaway not later than the September 30 immediately preceding renewal. Hathaway has similar agreements (providing lower severance multiples) with other key executives. The change in control agreements are applicable to a change in control of Hathaway or of the subsidiary or division for which the executive is employed and require the key executives to remain in the employ of the Company for a specified period in the event of a potential change in control of Hathaway and provide employment security to them in the face of current pressures to sell the Company or in the event of take-over threats, so that they can devote full time and attention to Hathaway's efforts free of concern about discharge in the event of a change in control of Hathaway. These agreements are common at other public companies. They are not excessive and are within industry standards. The Board of Directors has considered termination of these agreements and determined that the reasons for executing change in control agreements continue to be valid and concluded that notices of non-renewal would not be in the best interests of shareholders.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

During fiscal year 2002 the Compensation Committee was comprised of Messrs. Pilmanis and Hock who are both non-employees. See the caption EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION—Compensation of Directors for information concerning compensation paid to directors for attending and participating in board and committee meetings and special assignments.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT

Base salaries for the chief executive officer and president are reviewed annually in relation to corporate performance. No salary increases were recommended by the Committee for Mr. Smith or Mr. Warzala in August 2002.

In establishing target levels of achievement for the Annual Incentive Plan, the Committee reviews past operating results as well as forecasts and plans for the ensuing year. For fiscal 2002 the target levels were to achieve an 11% increase in corporate pretax net income over fiscal 2001. Actual pretax income decreased in 2002 and no bonus was recommended by the Committee for fiscal 2002. On August 15, 2002 the Board of Directors approved the change in the Company's fiscal year end from June 30 to December 31. The change will be effective December 31, 2002. As a result, the Committee recommended a modified Annual Incentive Plan for the short fiscal period from July 1, 2002 through December 31, 2002.

The Company's long-term incentive program is based on stock options. In making its recommendations for grants of stock options, the Committee considers, among other things, officer's responsibilities and their efforts and performance in relation to the business plan and forecast. It also considers development of the Company's business and products, performance of the Company's products in the marketplace, impact of the Company's products and product development on future prospects for the Company, market performance of the Company's Common Stock, the relationship between the benefits of stock options and improving shareholder value, the current level of stock options held, the shares available for option and the total shares under option grants. The Committee also considers customary business practices and long-term incentive plan benefits granted in comparison to such benefits provided to other executives in similar positions.

The Committee acknowledges the importance of providing competitive compensation and benefit packages in recruiting and retaining qualified personnel. Stock incentive programs remain an important component of the total compensation package for officers and key managers who are responsible for the conduct and management of the Company's business or who are involved in endeavors significant to its success to advance the interests of the Company and its shareholders and to remain affiliated with the Company.

During fiscal 2002, the Committee recommended option grants for Mr. Warzala in connection with his employment commencement and his appointment as President. The Committee recognized that an appropriate number of shares were not available under the Company's stock incentive plan at that time and recommended the Board consider and approve an amendment to the Year 2000 Stock Incentive Plan to increase the number of shares available under the Plan and the number of awards that may be granted to any one participant during a calendar year. The Board approved the amendment and the stock option grants to Mr. Warzala totaling 200,000 in fiscal year ended June 30, 2002 and 200,000 in July 2002. This Proxy Statement includes a proposal asking the shareholders to approve the amendment which will approve the grants to Mr. Warzala and allow for future grants to employees or directors whose judgment, initiative and continued efforts are expected to contribute to the success of the Company.

In connection with the acquisition of Motor Products in July 2002, the Committee considered granting options to the President of Motor Products but recognized that no shares were available for the option grant. Accordingly, the Committee recommended that if the amendment discussed above is approved by shareholders, the Board should consider a grant of options to the President of Motor Products.

SECTION 16 (a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP
REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires directors and executive officers and persons who own more than ten percent of the Company's Common Stock to report their ownership and any changes in that ownership to the Securities and Exchange Commission. Hathaway believes that all Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to its directors, executive officers and greater than ten percent beneficial owners were met for fiscal year 2002 except that a Form 4 for each director was not filed and the resulting Form 5 for each director was filed late.

INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANT

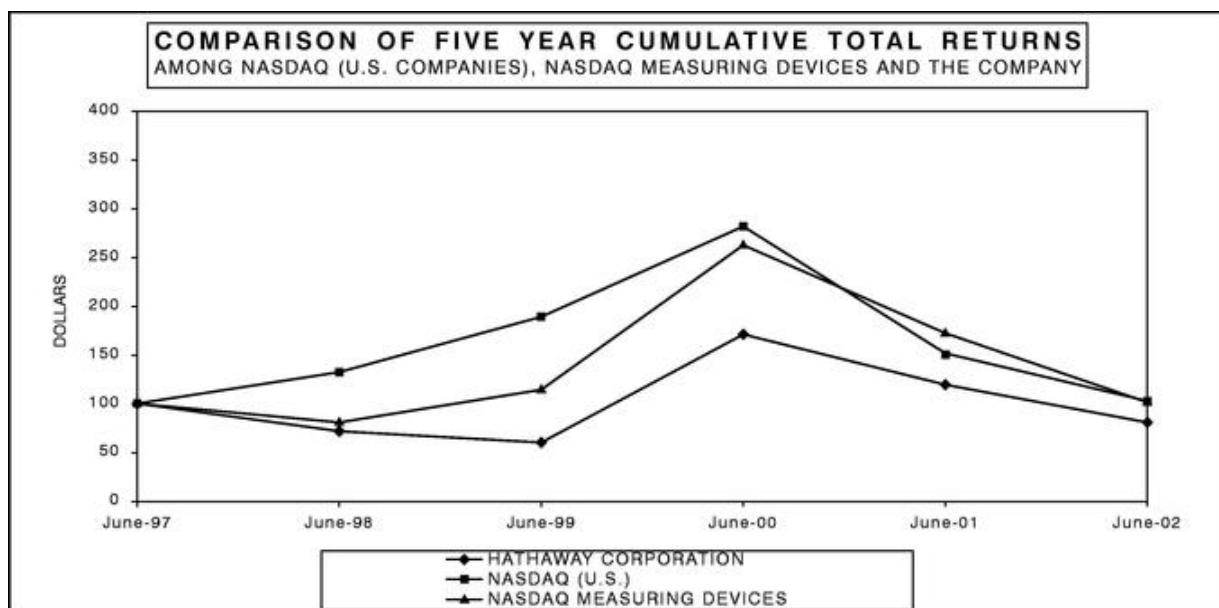

KPMG LLP served as independent auditors of the Company for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2002. A representative of KPMG LLP is expected to be present at the Annual Meeting. He will have an opportunity to make a statement if he so desires, and is expected to be available to respond to appropriate questions.

The Board of Directors has approved changing our year-end to a December 31 year end. The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors has not yet made a recommendation to the Board of Directors with respect to the selection of independent certified public accountants for the short fiscal period (six months) ending December 31, 2002.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in any of the Company's previous filings under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that might incorporate future filings, including this Proxy Statement, the following performance graph and audit committee report shall not be deemed to be "soliciting material: or to be "filed" with the Commission subject to Regulation 14A or 14C, or to the liabilities of Section 18 of the Exchange Act, except to the extent that the Company specifically requests that the information be treated as soliciting material or specifically incorporates it by reference into the document file under the Securities Act or the Exchange Act.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The Company has and will continue to have, an audit committee of at least three members comprised solely of independent directors, each of whom is able to read and understand fundamental financial statements, including a company's balance sheet, income statement, and cash flow statement, or will become able to do so within a reasonable period of time after his or her appointment to the audit committee. Additionally, the Company has, and will continue to have, at least one member of the audit committee that has past employment experience in finance or accounting, requisite professional certification in accounting, or any other comparable experience or background which results in the individual's financial sophistication, including being or having been a chief executive officer, a chief financial officer, or another senior officer with financial oversight responsibilities.

The Audit Committee is governed by a written charter adopted on May 3, 2000. The Audit Committee Charter was included as Exhibit "C" to the fiscal year 2000 Proxy Statement dated September 21, 2000. The Audit Committee has reviewed and reassessed the adequacy of the charter on an annual basis.

In connection with the June 30, 2002 financial statements, the Audit Committee has (1) reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements with management; (2) discussed with the independent auditors the matters required to be discussed by SAS 61; (3) received the written disclosures and the letter from the independent accountants required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees), and (4) discussed with the independent accountant their independence.

Based on the review and discussions referred to in items (1) through (4) of the above paragraph, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2002 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The Audit Committee has considered whether the provision of services covered in Items 9(e)(2) and (e)(3) of schedule 14A under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 is compatible with maintaining the independence of KPMG LLP. The Committee believes that the fees billed by KPMG LLP for the services set forth below are compatible with KPMG LLP maintaining its independence as the Company's principal accountant.

Audit Fees

The aggregate fees billed or expected to be billed for professional services rendered for the audit of our annual financial statements for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2002 and for the reviews of the financial statements included in the Company's Quarterly Reports on Forms 10-Q for the fiscal year 2002 are as follows:

ITEM 2: PROPOSAL TO AMEND ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION TO CHANGE THE NAME OF HATHAWAY CORPORATION

General

The Board of Directors has unanimously approved, and is recommending to our shareholders for approval at the Annual Meeting, an amendment to Article One of our Articles of Incorporation for the purpose of changing our name.

Reason For Name Change

From the time of its incorporation, the Hathaway name has been related to the power business. When Hathaway sold its power and process segment to Qualitrol Power Products LLC (approved by shareholders on July 25, 2002 and closed on July 29, 2002), Hathaway agreed in Section 6.17 of the Asset Purchase Agreement to sell the Hathaway name to Qualitrol. A copy of Section 6.17 of the Asset Purchase Agreement is attached to this Proxy Statement as Exhibit A. The name change is required to be effective prior to the first anniversary of the closing date. We have the limited right to use the Hathaway name for one year following the closing. We assume that Qualitrol wanted the Hathaway name in order that it could continue to identify the power and process business which it purchased with the Hathaway name. Following the power and process transaction we will be engaged in the motion control business. Our new name is related to that business. If the amendment to our Articles of Incorporation changing our name is not approved, we would be obligated under the Asset Purchase Agreement to grant an exclusive, perpetual and irrevocable license to Qualitrol to use the name "Hathaway" and any derivations of that name for any purpose throughout the world. The full text of the proposed amendment to the Articles of Incorporation is set forth below. The Board of Directors believes that the proposed name change is advisable in order to reflect the change in our business resulting from the sale of the power and process segment.

If our shareholders approve this proposal, Article One of our Articles of Incorporation will be amended to read in its entirety as follows:

"ARTICLE I
The name of the corporation is Allied Motion Technologies Corporation."

Recommendation of the Board of Directors as to the Amendment of our Articles of Incorporation to Change Our Name

After careful consideration, the Board of Directors has determined that it is in our best interests and those of our shareholders to change our name from Hathaway Corporation to Allied Motion Technologies Corporation. As a result, the Board has unanimously approved the amendment to our Articles of Incorporation to change our name and recommends that you vote to approve the amendment to our Articles of Incorporation to change our name.

Approval requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast on the proposed Amendment.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS A VOTE "FOR" THE ADOPTION OF A PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO OUR ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION CHANGING THE NAME OF HATHAWAY CORPORATION TO ALLIED MOTION TECHNOLOGIES CORPORATION.

ITEM 3: AMENDMENT TO THE YEAR 2000 STOCK INCENTIVE PLAN

On October 26, 2000 the Company adopted the Year 2000 Stock Incentive Plan, which authorized 600,000 shares for issuance under the Plan. During fiscal 2002 the Board of Directors amended the Plan, subject to shareholder approval, to increase the aggregate number of shares of Common Stock authorized for issuance under the Year 2000 Plan by 400,000 shares, from 600,000 shares to 1,000,000 shares and to increase the number of awards that may be granted to any one participant during a calendar year by 150,000 from 200,000 to 350,000.

Shareholders should note that upon issuance of shares underlying the options there would be a greater number of shares of Common Stock outstanding, and individual shareholders would, therefore, experience a reduction in the shareholders' relative percentage interest in the Company with respect to earnings per share, voting, liquidation value and book and market value per share.

Reasons for the Amendment

This amendment was designed to insure that Hathaway can continue to grant stock options at levels determined appropriate by the Board. The Board believes that, in order to attract, motivate and retain highly qualified employees and directors and to provide such employees and directors with adequate incentive through their proprietary interest in Hathaway, it is necessary to increase the number of shares available for issuance under the Year 2000 Plan and increase the number of shares that may be granted to any one participant during a calendar year. The following description of the Year 2000 Plan as amended is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Year 2000 Plan.

Description of the Year 2000 Plan

The Year 2000 Plan provides for the granting of stock options, stock appreciation rights, and restricted stock awards. Incentive stock options as defined in §422 of the Code may be granted (i) only to employees and employee-directors, (ii) with an exercise period of up to 10 years (5 years for persons owning more than 10% of the total combined voting power of the Company or any subsidiary), (iii) at exercise prices not less than fair market value at the date of grant (110% of fair market value if the optionee owns more than 10% of the total combined voting power of the Company or any subsidiary), and (iv) in amounts for which options first become exercisable in any calendar year which do not exceed $100,000 per employee. Non-statutory options may be granted (i) to employees and non-employee directors (ii) with an exercise period of up to ten years, (iii) at exercise prices no less than 85% of the fair market value at the date of grant. Stock appreciation rights may be awarded to employees and directors and will be exercisable at the time, to the extent and upon the terms and conditions set forth in each award. Restricted Stock may be awarded which is subject to a risk of forfeiture or other restriction that will lapse upon the achievement of one or more goals as is prescribed in each award. There are approximately 371 employees of the Company and subsidiaries and 5 directors of the Company eligible to participate in awards under the Year 2000 Plan.

Administration

The Year 2000 Plan is administered by a Committee appointed by the Board of Directors (consisting of two or more outside directors) or by the Board, which has the authority to select eligible participants for awards, designate the number of shares to be covered by each award, determine whether a stock option granted is to be an incentive stock option or a non-statutory option, determine restrictions, conditions and contingencies, and specify other terms of the awards. The Committee will interpret the Year 2000 Plan, and establish rules relating to the Plan.

No participant shall be granted, in any calendar year, awards to acquire in the aggregate more than 200,000 shares of Common Stock. The maximum number of shares that may be issued as restricted stock awards is 10% of the maximum number of shares available for issuance under the Year 2000 Plan. Unused or forfeited shares, any shares which are accepted for full or partial payment of purchased shares, and shares retained by the Company to satisfy applicable withholding obligations become available for use under the Year 2000 Plan.

Each award granted pursuant to the Year 2000 Plan will be evidenced by an Award Agreement which will set forth the terms applicable to that Award. Awards may be granted under the Year 2000 Plan until October 26, 2010. The exercise price for options granted under the Year 2000 Plan may be paid in cash or cashier's check, surrender of shares previously owned by the participant, or a combination of the above.

The Committee, in conjunction with any nonqualified stock option, may grant a cash bonus to any optionee to pay in whole or in part any portion of the exercise price, or any tax liability incurred by the exercise of an option. In connection with any award of Restricted Stock, an Award Agreement may provide for the payment of a cash amount to the grantee of the Restricted Stock to be paid at any time after the Restricted Stock shall have become vested.

Nontransferability of Options

Awards granted under the Year 2000 Plan may not be transferred other than by will or by the laws of descent and distribution, unless the award agreement provides otherwise. During the lifetime of the participant, an award may be exercised only by the participant or his or her legal representative.

Limitations on Exercise

If a participant's employment or other association with the Company or a subsidiary is terminated for any reason other than for cause, or because of the death or disability of the participant, any outstanding option or stock appreciation right will be exercisable (to the extent then exercisable) for a period of 30 days following such termination. If a participant's employment or other association with the Company or a subsidiary is terminated because of the participant's disability, any outstanding option or stock appreciation right will be exercisable (to the extent then exercisable) for a period of 90 days following such termination. If a participant dies while employed by or associated with the Company or a subsidiary, any outstanding option or stock appreciation right will be exercisable (to the extent then exercisable) for a period of 6 months following such death. In all cases, the exercise must occur within the Option Period. Unless otherwise provided in the Award Agreement, exercise periods for directors are the same as for employees, treating the termination of a director's services as the termination of an optionee's employment. If a participant's employment or other association with the Company or a subsidiary is terminated for cause, all outstanding options (whether or not vested) will be forfeited and cancelled.

Change in Capital Structure

If the number of outstanding shares of Common Stock of the Company is changed by a stock dividend, stock split, combination, or similar change in the capital structure of the Company, the number of shares of Common Stock available for award grant and the exercise price per share for each outstanding award under the Year 2000 Plan will be proportionally adjusted, subject to any required action by the Board or the shareholders of the Company.

Effect of Certain Transactions

In general, in the event of any approved transaction, all outstanding awards held by employees whose employment is affected (either by termination or transferred to successor employer) by the approved transaction, shall become vested and exercisable in full. Approved transactions generally include (i) the acquisition of beneficial ownership (as defined in Rule 13d-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) of 50% or more of the outstanding voting securities of the Company or any subsidiary by any person (other than the Company, any subsidiary, or any employee benefit plan), during any period of 12 consecutive months; (ii) the sale, exchange or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of any subsidiary or any division of the Company or subsidiary; (iii) any merger or consolidation of the Company with one or more corporation, whether or not the Company is the surviving corporation; (iv) any sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company pursuant to a plan which provides for the liquidation of the Company; (v) any exchange by the holders of more than 50% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock for securities issued by another entity; (vi) a change in the majority of the members of the Board other than by reason of voluntary resignation, retirement or death.

Amendment

The Company may amend or terminate the Year 2000 Plan at any time, except that no amendment or modification may become effective without approval by the shareholders, if shareholder approval is required to enable the Year 2000 Plan to satisfy any applicable statutory or regulatory requirements. Subject to the specific terms of the Year 2000 Plan, the Committee may accelerate the vesting of any award, or waive any conditions or restrictions pursuant to an award at any time.

Options Granted and to be Granted

As of September 16, 2002, 376 employees and directors were eligible to be considered for the grant of options under the Year 2000 Plan. As of September 16, 2002, the Company had outstanding options under the Year 2000 Plan to purchase an aggregate of 700,860 shares of Common Stock, at exercise prices ranging from $2.40 to $4.83 per share, or a weighted average per share exercise price of $3.18; no shares of Common Stock have been issued pursuant to grants under the Year 2000 Plan; and 299,140 shares of Common Stock (including the 400,000 shares subject to shareholder approval at the Annual Meeting) are available for future issuance under the Year 2000 Plan. The 700,860 outstanding options includes 200,000 options granted to Mr. Warzala, President, after the fiscal 2002 year end.

As of September 16, 2002, the following persons or groups had in total, received options to purchase shares of Common Stock under the Year 2000 Plan as follows: (i) the chief executive officer and other executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table: 580,000 shares; (ii) all current executive officers of the Company as a group: 580,000 shares; (iii) all current directors who are not executive officers as a group: 80,000 shares; (iv) each nominee for director (other than the director and director-nominee listed in (i) above and the current directors listed in (ii) above): None.

Subject to the limitations contained in the Year 2000 Plan, options granted under the Year 2000 Plan will become exercisable at such time and in such installments as the Committee shall provide in the terms of each individual stock option agreement.

Federal Income Tax Consequences

In general, no taxable income results to the holder of an incentive stock option upon the grant of the option or issuance of shares. The amount realized on the disposition of such shares in excess of the option price will be considered capital gain, except that if a disposition occurs within one year after the exercise of the option or two years after the grant of the option, the participant will realize compensation income, for federal income tax purposes, equal to the amount by which the lesser of (i) the fair market value on the date of exercise or (ii) the amount realized on the sale of the shares, exceeds the option price. For the purpose of determining alternative minimum taxable income, an incentive stock option is treated as a nonstatutory option.

In connection with the exercise of a nonstatutory option, an optionee will generally realize compensation income, for federal income tax purposes, on the difference between the option price and the fair market value of the shares acquired on the date of exercise.

If an option is exercised and payment is made by means of previously held shares, or shares and cash, there is no gain or loss recognized to the optionee on the previously held shares acquired by the exercise of an incentive stock option, so long as those previously acquired shares have been held for the required holding period. In the case of a nonstatutory option, the optionee's basis and holding period of the previously held shares will be carried over to an equivalent number of shares received under the option. Any additional shares received under the option will be taxed to the optionee at the time of the exercise as ordinary income.

Exercising a nonstatutory option with shares which were originally acquired on the exercise of an incentive stock option will not constitute a "disqualifying disposition" of such previously held shares. If, however, the new shares are not held for the balance of the required holding period, there will be a disqualifying disposition for federal income tax purposes, resulting in recognition of compensation income to the participant in an amount equal to the lesser of (i) the excess of the fair market value at the time such incentive shares were originally acquired over the option price or (ii) the amount realized on the sales of the shares minus the option price. However, exercising an incentive stock option with shares acquired by the exercise of an incentive stock option will constitute a disqualifying disposition of such previously held shares if the one and the two-year holding periods described above have not been met before such exercise.

To the extent individual optionees qualify for capital gains tax treatment, the Company will generally not be entitled to a deduction for federal income tax purposes. In other cases the Company will generally receive a federal income tax deduction at the same time, and in the same amount, as the amount which is taxable to the employee as compensation income.

The grant of a stock appreciation right will not result in taxable income to the participant. Upon exercise, the amount of cash or the fair market value of shares received will be taxable to the participant as ordinary income and a corresponding deduction will be allowed to the Company. Gains or losses realized by the participant upon disposition of shares will be treated as capital gains and losses, with the basis in such shares equal to the fair market value of the shares at the time of vesting.

The grant of a restricted stock award will not result in taxable income to the participant and the Company will not be entitled to a deduction at that time, assuming that the restrictions constitute a "substantial risk of forfeiture" for federal income tax purposes. Upon the vesting of shares subject to an award, the participant will realize ordinary income in an amount equal to the then fair market value of those shares, and the Company will be entitled to a corresponding deduction. Gains or losses realized by the participant upon disposition of shares will be treated as capital gains and losses, with the basis in such shares equal to the fair market value of the shares at the time of exercise.

Approval requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast on the proposed Plan.

THE COMPANY'S BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT THE SHAREHOLDERS VOTE "FOR" THE APPROVAL OF THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE COMPANY'S YEAR 2000 STOCK INCENTIVE PLAN.

ITEM 4: OTHER MATTERS

The Board of Directors knows of no business to be presented for action at the Annual Meeting except as described above. However, if other matters are properly presented for a vote, the proxies will be voted upon such matters (including matters incident to the conduct of the meeting) in accordance with the judgment of the persons acting under the proxies.

ANNUAL REPORT

The Company's Annual Report for the year ended June 30, 2002 has been mailed to shareholders with this Proxy statement.

SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS FOR 2004 ANNUAL MEETING

Since Hathaway has changed its fiscal year from a year ending June 30 to a year ending December 31, the change will be effective December 31, 2002. Because of the short fiscal year from July 1, 2002 through December 31, 2002, no annual meeting will be held in the year 2003. The next annual meeting will be held in April 2004. Shareholder proposals for the annual meeting in April 2004 must be submitted in writing to the Secretary of the Company at the address of the Company set forth on the first page of this Proxy Statement no later than November 15, 2003 in order to be presented at the Annual Meeting or be considered for inclusion in the Company's 2004 Annual Meeting Proxy Statement and Proxy Card.
